FERRARI 328 GTS

METICULOUSLY SELECTED

We conduct thorough due diligence on every asset, and this exceptionally low-mileage 1987 Ferrari 328 GTS was no exception. We consider it one of the finest examples available worldwide.

EXCEPTIONAL CONDITION

The CarCrowd-sourced asset is in outstanding condition, with both the exterior and interior showcasing the meticulous care this 328 GTS has received over its 38-year lifespan, preserving it as a true time capsule.

STRONG HISTORY

With a well-documented history of specialist and main dealer servicing, along with documented periods of storage, this car has been meticulously maintained. Like the Testarossa, this 328 GTS was also part of the renowned Gastone Crepaldi collection. Most recently this 328 was held with renowned Ferrari specialist and collector Bob Houghton.

RARE EXAMPLE

With an approximate annual average of just 35 miles, a strong history, and exceptional preservation, this Ferrari 328 GTS is a true concours-quality example—one we believe to be among the finest available worldwide.
